

Ernest Hemingway Resume

Professional Summary

Nobel Prize-winning author, journalist, and one of the 20th century's most influential literary figures. Known for his economical and understated style, which he termed the "Iceberg Theory", Hemingway's work revolutionized the literary landscape.

Professional Experience

Journalist: Correspondent for the Toronto Star, covered various major conflicts including the Spanish Civil War and World War II.

Author: Published numerous novels, short stories, and non-fiction works that have left a lasting impact on literature.

Ernest Hemingway Resume

Major Publications

Novels: "The Sun Also Rises," "A Farewell to Arms," "For Whom the Bell Tolls," "The Old Man and the Sea."

Short Stories: Collections such as "In Our Time" and "Men Without Women."

Non-Fiction: "Death in the Afternoon," "A Moveable Feast."

Awards

Nobel Prize in Literature (1954) for his mastery of the art of narrative.

Pulitzer Prize for Fiction (1953) for "The Old Man and the Sea."

Ernest Hemingway Resume

Personal Life

Early Life: Born in 1899 in Oak Park, Illinois. Served as an ambulance driver in World War I.

Marriages: Married four times and had three sons.

Residences: Lived in Paris, Key West, Cuba, and Idaho.

Legacy

Hemingway left a profound impact on literature, characterized by his distinctive style and themes of war, love, and loss. His adventurous lifestyle and public image influenced generations of writers and cultural figures.